Disclosure and Barring Service checks

Oxford Sixth Form College complies fully with the DBS Code of Practice

The post you are applying for involves work with young people and is, therefore, exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that you are NOT entitled to withhold information about convictions, cautions, bind-overs, reprimands and final warnings, which in other circumstances would be regarded as spent. You will be required to provide an enhanced DBS disclosure as a condition of any employment offer arising from this application.

If YES, please supply the following details in a sealed envelope marked 'strictly confidential' to the HR Officer: the nature of offence(s), date of conviction(s), penalties and country in which they occurred. This information will be held on a strictly confidential basis, in compliance with the Data Protection Act and only discussed with the selection panel where it is relevant to the post for which you have applied. Answering "Yes" will not necessarily prevent you from being considered for this post. If you are emailing your application, please send these details separately in a sealed envelope marked "CONFIDENTIAL", with your name and the title of the post you are applying for, for the attention of the HR Officer.

References

Please provide the names and contact details of three employers who can provide references relating to your suitability for this post. One of the referees must be your current / most recent employer. If this is your first job application since completing full-time education one referee must be your school teacher or tertiary education tutor. References from friends or relatives will not be accepted. If you have worked with children (either in a paid or a voluntary basis) those employers will be asked about any disciplinary offences relating to children or if you were the subject of any child protection concerns.
